Winemaker's Notes	Walking through our young estate Chardonnay block in the stinking hot, dry 2017 season, I kept hearing the song 'California Dreamin' in my head as I tasted and sampled clusters. It was a year to produce big, ripe, hot climate style wines. So, we did. Hand-picked, whole bunch pressed, then fermented in 7 vastly different French oak barrels with 7 specially selected yeast strains, this is my ode to California. Lees were stirred weekly, then bi-weekly, from November 2017 to February 2019. Aged for 32 months in 20% new French oak barrels. California Dreamin' indeed.
